LORD GRIZZLY

Description: Mountain men are famous for their strength and endurance, and who among them better typifies their courage and will than Hugh Glass? Hunter, trapper, resourceful fighter, and scout, Hugh Glass was just another rugged individual in a crowd of rugged men until he was mauled by a grizzly bear and left for dead by his best friends. They never expected to see him again. But they did, and he was not just Hugh Glass any more. He was Lord Grizzly. "This is a very fine, real, rich, bright novel. Above all it is a novel deserving the appreciative reading and warm applause of all who, like the author, value the legends of America and believe in both their perpetuation and their interpretation."—Chicago Sunday Tribune "There is a ranginess, a freewheeling robustness, an engaging lustiness of style and expression here. . . . Lord Grizzly is a heady mixture of history made into first rate fiction."—New York Times Lord Grizzly is the second volume of Frederick Manfred's acclaimed five-volume series, the Buckskin Man Tales.

THE NATURE OF CARIBOU

Description: One of the most spectacular sights in all of nature is the massing together of thousands of caribou on the tundra as they serge from one area to another, feeding on sedge leaves and flowering plants. Lavishly illustrated with some of the best photographs of caribou in the world, The Nature of Caribou explores the dynamics of these gigantic aggregations, along with many other aspects of caribou's lives. Caribou expert H. John Russell takes us through a year in the lives of the barren ground caribou. He also discusses humans' relationship with caribou.

DYING FOR GOLD

Description: The true story of the Giant Mine Murders. The heart of the Yellowknife community beats deep underground, where miners carve their livelihood from ancient gold-bearing rock. On September 18, 1992, that heart was blown apart. Nine men were killed in an inferno caused by a violent explosion deep in the Giant mine. The authors take you to the front row of the courtroom for Roger Warren's trial. In a mesmerizing recreation of the mine blast, they raise serious and far-reaching questions about the guilt of the man convicted of killing his fellow miners.

LOST IN THE BARRENS

Description: Awasin, a Cree Indian boy, and Jamie, a Canadian orphan living with his uncle, the trapper Angus Macnair, are enchanted by the magic of the great Arctic wastes. They set out on an adventure that proves longer and more dangerous than they could have imagined. Drawing on his knowledge of the ways of the wilderness and the implacable northern elements, Farley Mowat has created a memorable tale of daring and adventure. When first published in 1956, Lost in the Barrens won the Governor-General's Award for Juvenile Literature, the Book-of-the-Year Medal of the Canadian Association of Children's Librarians and the Boys' Club of America Junior Book
